

Word Pictures

Directions: Figurative language influences the images and feelings the reader has when interacting with the text. Ray Bradbury creates pictures for your inner eye to behold the setting and to convey ideas through moods. Beginning with the death of Beatty in Part II, "Burning Bright," find at least ten effective figures of speech which contribute to your image of the setting and mood. Make your choices on the basis of what is effective for you. Use the whole section. Prepare to share your choices.

Phrase	Figure of Speech	Effect
1. hiss like a mouthful of spittle banging on the stove	simile	the person is liquid, insignificant like spit but insulting in death
2. _____	_____	_____
3. _____	_____	_____
4. _____	_____	_____
5. _____	_____	_____
6. _____	_____	_____
7. _____	_____	_____

Phrase	Figure of Speech	Effect
8. _____ _____	_____	_____
9. _____ _____	_____	_____
10. _____ _____	_____	_____