Inference Clues
1. How was she sitting?
2. She was the sole
3. Why might she be sitting stiffly?
1 Hanhanda
4. Her hands
5 dotted her forehead.
6. Her throat was
7 Those clues should support your informed that the mood
7. These clues should support your inference that the mood of the story is one of
of the story is one or
In the how helow, nut it together to and answer the question in
In the box below, put it together to and answer the question in short answer format with text evidence.
short answer format with text evidence.
What details are given which allow the reader to infer the
What details are given which allow the reader to infer the mood of the story?
modu of the story: